

BRIAN PRUITT----- BIO

As one of the nations top running backs in 1994, Brian Pruitt was a sure pick for the 1995 NFL draft before being set-back by what seemed to be tragedy. Nevertheless while faced with this obstacle, Brian Pruitt began to forge his unique message of hope and encouragement. By drawing from his own personal experiences, Brian enlightens both youth and adults alike on how to overcome obstacles.

During some of Brian's greatest challenges, he held on to the words of his mentor and coach: "If you don't do something with life, life will do something with you." This profound statement helped Brian to take control of his own destiny despite tough circumstances. Brian will be your life coach empowering you to accomplish your dreams.

Today, Brian travels throughout the United States and other parts of the world delivering the message that you can accomplish anything if you display Heart, Attitude, Courage and Consistency. As one of the country's most inspirational speakers, Brian rejuvenates the passions of youth and adults to achieve their dreams.
